DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species I: Compound (a) which comprises one or more mono-hydroxyphenyl (phenol) moieties, each carrying one or two bonds to a divalent linking group (specification, pages 5-6);

Species II: Compound (a) which comprises one or more mono-hydroxyphenyl (phenol) moieties, each carrying one or two bonds to a trivalent linking group (specification, pages 5-7);

Species III: Compound (a) which comprises one or more mono-hydroxyphenyl (phenol) moieties, each carrying one or two bonds to a tetravalent linking group (specification, pages 5 and 7);

Species IV: Compound (a) which comprises one or more mono-hydroxyphenyl (phenol) moieties, each carrying one or two bonds to an anchor group (specification, pages 8-9);

Species V: Compound (a) which is represented by the formula II (a):

(specification, pages 9-10)

Species VI: Compound (a) which is represented by the formula II (b):

(specification, page 10)

Species VII: Compound (a) which is represented by the formula II (c) :

(specification, page 11).

Applicant's attention is drawn to the situation involving the so-called Markush practice wherein a single claim defines alternatives (chemical or non-chemical) is also governed by PCT Rule 13.2. In this special situation, the requirement of a technical interrelationship and the same or corresponding special technical features as defined in PCT Rule 13.2, shall be considered to be met when the alternatives are of similar nature.

In particular, when the Markush grouping is for alternatives of chemical compounds, they shall be regarded as being of a similar nature when the following criteria are fulfilled:

(A) All alternatives have a common property or activity ; and

(B)(1) A common structure is present, i.e., a significant structural element is shared by all of the alternatives; or

(B)(2) In cases where the common structure cannot be the unifying criteria, all alternatives belong to a recognized class of chemical compounds in the art to which the invention pertains. (MPEP 1850-III)

In the present instance, the species listed above do relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack a common structure and the alternatives do not belong in the same class of chemical compounds, due to the large variety of linking groups and anchor groups disclosed by the applicant. Also, the compounds of formulas (IIa), (IIb) and (IIc) lack a common structure and belong to different class of compounds (the compound of (IIa) is a triazole derivative, the compound of formula (IIb) is a benzophenone derivative and the compound of formula (IIc) is a triazine derivative).

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species I: Claims 3, 5, 6
Species II: Claims 3, 5, 6
Species III: Claims 3, 5, 6
Species IV: Claims 3, 4, 5, 6
Species V: Claim 3
Species VI: Claim 3
Species VII: Claim 3.

The following claim(s) are generic: 1, 2, 7-14 and 16-18.

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Anca Eoff whose telephone number is 571-272-9810. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 6:30 AM-4:00 PM, EST.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Alexa Neckel can be reached on 571-272-1446. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
